• HARVEST'S END

RIMEFLOW RIVER

ICEFLOW RIVER

LANDS of the LINNORM KINGS

TROLLHEM •

- Follow the valley's slope south to a narrow pass through the hills. Look for two abandoned towers as confirmation that you are on the right path.
- Beyond the pass, cross into the grasslands, head south-west to the hamlet of Harvest's End. The town's chimney smoke should guide you there.
- In Harvest's End, keep a low profile. Find the ferry crossing to ford the treacherous Rimeflow River.
- Travel as the crow flies towards Trollheim, using the forest for cover. Halfway between the river and the city you should encounter a Blackraven way station; you can rest and recuperate with allies there.
- From this point to Trollheim should be without peril, but maintain secrecy until you meet your contacts outside the city.

Safe journey,
Lightfoot
